(c) Attached enlisted men and details.—The names of enlisted men attached to or casually with a company will not be borne on the rolls of such company, but on separate detachment rolls. The names of men of different regiments, fort commands, corps, or departments, will not be borne on the same detachment roll.

for _____, 191-." On the rolls following the final disposition of the case will appear the data given on the first roll, and also the date, with number and source of the order announcing the man's return to duty or the result of the trial, including nature of offense of which convicted. [Note.—The restoration to duty of a deserter by competent authority, namely, by the commander who would be authorized to direct that he be brought to trial, can be ordered only in case the desertion is admitted, and must not be confused with the retrial (by the order of such commander or the War Department) of a charge of desertion erroneously entered on the rolls against a soldier—see pars. 122, A. R., 1912, and 43, C. of O., 1901-1915.]
